

Welcome to PMO Day 2018

“PMO Tag”, the leading German congress for experts in the field of project management offices, will take place on 22nd October in Nuremberg.

Participants can look forward to an upmarket event with two fascinating keynotes, high-quality presentations, new inspiring ideas and interactive formats, which all together create an unparalleled program. Additionally, visitors will benefit from great networking opportunities and get the chance to learn from first hand business examples.

Therefore, the “PMO Tag” is a must go for all executives that want to lead their organisation to corporate project management success and for all current and future PMO experts from various industries.

Be part of one of the most significant meeting points for project management office experts and enjoy the professional atmosphere of the “PMO Tag” 2018.
